ADGP quizzes Santro Ravi at Vijayanagar Police Station

Santro Ravi and two others arrested in Gujarat yesterday were brought to Mysuru from Bengaluru early morning

K.S. Manjunath alias Santro Ravi

ADGP (L&O) Alok Kumar, who is camping in Mysuru since yesterday, addressing media at Vijayanagar Police Station today. The Police Station is barricaded as a precautionary measure.

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (RK&BS)- ADGP (Law and Order) Alok Kumar quizzed the alleged human trafficking kingpin Santro Ravi at Vijayanagar Police Station in city this morning.

Santro Ravi, who is booked by Vijayanagar Police under several charges including sexual assault, forceful marriage and caste abuse, on the basis of a complaint lodged by his second wife, on Jan. 2, was arrested by the Police at Ahmedabad in Gujarat yesterday. [More reports inside]

Moreover, Santro Ravi's alleged high profile links involving State BJP Ministers, Police Officers and bureaucrats had heated up the case further, forcing the Police to apprehend him at the earliest.

The 51-year-old Santro Ravi and two of his accomplices Ramji, aged 45 years and Satish Kumar, 35, were brought to Kempegowda International Airport Limited, Devanahalli in Bengaluru, in the midnight hours. To avoid media glare, they were allegedly taken out through another gate. Later, the trio were brought to Mysuru by road in the early morning hours.

ADGP Alok Kumar, who is supervising the case ever since it started snowballing into a controversy, interrogated Santro Ravi. The interrogation lasted more than an hour.

Alok Kumar who stayed overnight, after a hurried press conference at City Police Commissioner's office on Friday, to officially announce the arrest of Santro Ravi, visited Goddess Chamundeshwari Temple at Chamundi Hill this morning. He is expected to return to Bengaluru this evening, to apprise the Government about the case.

Mysuru Royalty closes Devikere Road atop Chamundi Hill

- Gate installed; security personnel posted
- Villagers to meet Pramoda Devi Wadiyar

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (MTY&BCT)- Close on the heels of the members of the erstwhile Mysore royal family upset over not consulting them on the restoration works of Devikere and other development works atop the Chamundi Hill as the land on which Devikere is located belongs to them, a new gate has been installed overnight on the road leading to Devikere. It has been locked and security personnel have been posted there. A signboard restricting the entry of the public has been put up.

Pramoda Devi

It may be recalled here that an advocate from Mysore Palace visited Devikere recently and took exception to the Lake development works without bringing it to the notice of the royal family members.

The Minor Irrigation Department is undertaking works to give a facelift to Devikere and as part of the project, earth-movers were being used to lift the tonnes of silt from the Lake that has been deposited for years. The works have been taken up at a cost of Rs. 7.5 crore.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The Almighty makes no distinction and creates no division amongst mankind, because Truth is one and indivisible. Dividing of mankind by gurus is an inexcusable lapse. One who divides mankind, divides the Truth, which means he creates all sorts of confusions. A simple direct approach pursued with faith, devotion and concentrated attention will lead anyone reciting mentally the Mahanam, 'divine name', to the cherished goal.

If penance means to bear sufferings with fortitude, what is the need of inviting them from outside? Do we have to go to a forest and deny the normal needs of the body and inflict sufferings on ourselves? Can we please the Almighty by our denials and penance and tapasya? We do have enough sufferings in this world. In conducting our lives, we are confronted with numerous sufferings. That is our prarabdha, past actions that are bound to fructify. To bear with patience and fortitude the force of this prarabdha is the only tapasya we can perform. When this is done with faithful mental recital of Mahanam, the force of prarabdha is reduced. And when you start having communion with Him, the pressure of it is not felt. Why, then, should we go to a forest or a hill and do jap or penance? These performances in the forest and hill are not only unnecessary, they mislead the people, when Truth is residing within our hearts. — HD Lahiri in The Times of India

The ballpoint pen drawings of Latvian artist

Riga: Latvian artist Marite Desaine specialises in beautiful ballpoint pen drawings that can easily be mistaken for elaborate paintings.

In the right hands, the humble ballpoint pen can be an amazing art tool, but nothing quite like the artworks of Marite Desaine. The Latvian artist first took the internet by storm with her awe-inspiring drawings back in 2014, soon after graduating from art school, when a number of prestigious art websites and blogs picked up her work. And for good reason, her style was unique, and the artworks – mostly landscapes – looked more like colorful paintings than drawings.

Desaine herself admitted that each piece takes around 30 hours to complete and this may be one of the reasons why the artist gradually gravitated away from the art form that brought her so much success. Although the ballpoint pen drawings are still doing the rounds on social media, most of them actually date back at least six, or seven years.

High-tech stroller, powered by artificial intelligence

Toronto: Canadian stroller maker Glüxkind is all set to release world's most advanced AI-powered baby stroller.

Originally unveiled at this year's Consumer Electronics Show (CES), the Glüxkind Ella is a technological wonder compared to most other baby strollers. Calling it a stroller sounds a bit unfair, considering that it's more of a high-tech many that can independently rock your baby to sleep, assist the user on uphill and downhill slopes, and constantly monitor surroundings via an array of sensors and cameras, among many other impressive functions.

It may look like a regular stroller at first sight, but Ella is actually a small battery-powered vehicle powered by artificial intelligence.

Online booking of entry tickets to Daria Daulat posing problems

Sir,

I recently visited Daria Daulat Bagh along with my family on a trip to Srirangapatna. We were surprised to find that the offline ticket counter was closed permanently and that we were required to book entry tickets online. This posed a major problem for many of the tourists there, particularly senior citizens and foreign nationals, as they were unfamiliar with the process and some did not even have access to the necessary technology.

This new system has raised several challenges that should be addressed. Many people do not own smartphones or have reliable internet connections, making it difficult for them to book tickets. Additionally, the lengthy process can be time-consuming and leaves room for exploitation by unscrupulous individuals. The internet connectivity in the area is also poor, which can lead to failed payments. Furthermore, the Tourism Department may be losing out on revenue.

While it is important to embrace digital payment modes, it is also necessary to consider the potential implications of this transition. I would like to suggest two potential solutions to ensure that the transition is successful:

1. Offer both digital and cash payment options to accommodate those who require cash payments.

2. Inform the public of the transition through mass media and take their feedback into account before implementing major changes.

I hope that the authorities concerned will consider these suggestions and work to resolve this issue as soon as possible.

Finally, Cops stop Santro Ravi on run in Gujarat

Karnataka Police, most from Mysuru, unmask Santro Ravi who had concealed his identity to evade the Khaki

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (SBD&BS)- After 11 days of hide and seek game, K.S. Manjunath alias Santro Ravi was traced out finally at Ahmedabad in Gujarat on Friday.

Santro Ravi, accused of sexual assault, forceful marriage and caste abuse and several other charges, was on the run ever since his alleged links with the bigwigs of the society, most of them the incumbent Ministers in the State BJP Government surfaced. The startling revelations hit the headlines, beginning with the complaint lodged by his second wife, a Dalit, at Vijayanagar Police Station in city.

In a hurriedly convened press conference at the Police Commissioner's office in city yesterday, Additional Director General of Police (ADGP) - Law and Order, Alok Kumar, who was tasked with the supervision of the 'high profile' case, said: "Santro Ravi, aged 51 years, his accomplices Ramji, 45 and Satish Kumar, 35, were arrested at Ahmedabad in Gujarat. While another accused Madhusudhan alias Madhu has been already arrested in the case and has been remanded to judicial custody, totalling four arrested in the case.

Santro Ravi - Then and Now.

Apart from providing shelter to Santro Ravi, the role played by the co-accused in this case will be known only after quizzing them, said ADGP Alok Kumar.

To evade Police, Santro Ravi had changed his look as his latest photos of wearing wig and spectacle were all splashed over in the media. When the Police tracked him, he was found without moustache, wig and was wearing a full sleeves sweater, said ADGP Alok Kumar showing the photo taken at the time of arrest of Santro Ravi.

Santro Ravi was not new to the world of crime and was adept at how to escape from the hawk-eyed Police. But the Police made relentless efforts and busted his hideout, the ADGP claimed.

During the course of investigation, Police had conducted searches at two houses in Dattagalli in Mysuru and another at Rajarajeshwari Nagar in Bengaluru. I have also spoken to the victim complainant in the case and those associated with Odanadi NGO among others. In all, 28 cases are booked against Santro Ravi. We are looking into the cases — how many are pending and charge-sheets are not filed.

Chief Minister, Home Minister and DG&IGP have congratulated the Police team that cracked the case and have also announced a reward.

The team included City Police Commissioner B. Ramesh, DCP (Law and Order) M. Muthuraj, DCP (Crime and Traffic) M.S. Geetha Prasanna, Mandya SP N. Yathish, Ramanagar SP Dr. Santosh Babu, Raichur SP B. Nikhil, ACP NR Sub-Division M. Shivashankar, also the Investigating Officer (IO) of the case, CCB ACP C.K. Ashwathnarayan, NR Police Station Inspector Azharuddin, Policemen Manjunath and Mahesh, Vidyaranyapuram Police Inspector G.C. Raju, Metagalli Police Inspector Diwakar, Vijayanagar Police Inspector B.S. Ravishankar, Beechanahalli PSI Jayaprakash, CCB Inspectors G. Shekar and A. Mallesh, Lashkar Police Inspector P.P. Santosh, KR Police Inspector N.V. Mahesh, CEN Police Inspector Jayakumar, Chamarajanagar East Station's A. Anand, Traffic Station's Nandish Kumar, Channarayapatna Police Station's K.M. Vasanth, Saligrama Circle's Vasanth and CEN Police Station's Ravikumar.

Following the complaint on Jan. 2, Vijayanagar Police have booked the cases under Dowry Prohibition Act, Prevention of Atrocities (SC/ ST) Act, IPC Sections 506 (criminal intimidation), 504 (Intentional insult and provocation), 376 (rape), 270 (Malign act to spread the infection dangerous to life), 313 (causing miscarriage without woman's consent), 323 (voluntarily causing hurt) and 498A (harassment of woman).

Why delay in arresting Santro Ravi? ADGP explains...

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (SBD&BS)- Santro Ravi, who was adept at hoodwinking Police who were on his trail, was frequently changing his hideout, along with the car and mobile SIM cards, that caused the delay in arresting him.

ADGP (Law and Order) Alok Kumar has said: "Some among the Police may have erred in their duty but City Police Commissioner B. Ramesh-led team put honest efforts in arresting the accused. I have explained in detail only to repose people's faith in Police, without any doubt."

The Chief Minister had also taken the case seriously, had asked about the delay in arresting him as the State Government was in the dock. Even while in the Prime Minister's bandobast, the CM had enquired about the progress of the case. The Home Minister and DG&IGP were also keeping a track of the progress in the case, added the ADGP.

Raichur SP got the smell...

Mysuru, Jan.14 (SBD&BS)- Like a good old saying 'Every thief leaves behind a clue,' how Police got the smell of Santro Ravi is an interesting story.

Lashmith alias Chetan, who had filed an anticipatory bail plea in Mysuru Court (Sixth Additional Principal and Sessions Court) had gone to Sri Raghavendra Swamy Temple at Raichur for darshan on Jan. 12.

Raichur Police, who caught hold of Chetan, subjected the latter to enquiry, when he spilled the beans about Santro Ravi's whereabouts.

Acting swiftly, Raichur SP B. Nikhil checked into the veracity of information and got it confirmed about Santro Ravi's hiding in Gujarat. Without wasting time, Karnataka Police busted his (Santro Ravi) hideout.

Santro Ravi had changed 15 mobile phone SIM cards

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (SBD&BS)- Fifteen mobile phone SIM cards, four States and several districts within the State.

This was how the kingpin of human trafficking racket Santro Ravi could remain elusive for 11 days even as the Police had launched a manhunt for him, before getting caught in Gujarat on Friday.

After the nefarious deals of Santro Ravi, who is allegedly running a transfer racket with the photos of him with many politicos emerging in the media, turned the heat on the State Government, Santro Ravi fearing consequences went underground, without leaving behind a clue.

As the Police in 11 teams were searching for him traversing through seven States, Santro Ravi in a covert manner was frequently changing his hideout, keeping Police on their toes.

He had travelled through Udupi, Mangaluru and other places in the State, followed by Kerala, Telangana and Maharashtra States before reaching Gujarat.

He never did any transactions online, that made it further difficult for the Police to trace him. As he was aware of Police and their style of operation, he knew all the tricks that could keep them (Police) away from reaching him.

As the Police were aware of Santro Ravi's escape act, they had his photos without wig and moustache.

Finally, it came to know that Santro Ravi was staying at an elite hotel in Gujarat and was arrested under the leadership of two IPS officers led team.

Was booked under Goonda Act in 2005

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (SBD&BS)- Santro Ravi, who has criminal antecedents, was booked after invoking Goonda Act against him in 2005 in Mysuru.

As Vijayanagar Police booked a case against him recently, he had fled from the city and was on the move, travelling in several districts and other States, before he was apprehended in Gujarat, said ADGP Alok Kumar.

Dangerous Public Works

On Tuesday, a 28-year-old woman and her two-and-half-year-old son were killed after a reinforcement structure made of iron rods for constructing a Namma Metro pillar crashed on a bike-borne family in Bengaluru.

Ironically, most public works — the very exercise of doing something good for the public — are done in a manner that is most unsafe for the public.

A bridge in Gujarat collapsed just a few months ago, and 141 people died. According to a study published in the journal, "Structure and Infrastructure Engineering," between 1977 and 2017, about 2,130 bridges collapsed in India.

But by far, the worse public work that hinders the public is road work. As they lay roads in the middle of the day, it creates traffic congestion and sometimes strings of hot tar blown by the breeze stick and burn bike riders. After all this, within a week, the potholes are back.

No wonder the Supreme Court stated that it had found something very "unacceptable and frightening", and it wasn't talking about corruption or terrorism but potholes! This, after the Court-Appointed Committee on Road Safety, showed data that potholes had killed more Indians than terrorism!

The Supreme Court, while calling these deaths "a tragedy that arises only due to lack of concern by authorities," also rued, saying, "Unfortunately, no criminal action is taken against authorities for their negligence." It then sought a response from the Government on how to address this problem. But…

Isn't this like asking the fox to find a way to protect the chickens from the fox itself? After all, in most cases, the lawmaker forces the bureaucrats to give public works contracts to their "party"-approved contractors.

Maybe, the Court can ask the Police to do their job instead because there is already a provision in law to book cases against institutions and people who put citizens' lives at risk.

Under Section 304A of the Indian Penal Code, "Whoever causes the death of any person by doing any rash or negligent act not amounting to culpable homicide, shall be punished with imprisonment of two years, or with fine, or with both."

But the Police, to save their fellow Government servants, book the victims instead! Like it happened in both Bengaluru and Mumbai.

In Bengaluru, the Police booked a man for negligent driving when in fact, he lost balance after hitting a pothole on the Devarabeesanahalli flyover throwing his wife, who was riding pillion, to the ground, killing her!

In Mumbai too, when a lady went to file a case against the road contractor as the pothole had caused an accident, killing her mother riding a pillion, she was shocked when the Police booked a case against her instead. The Thane Police even had the audacity to say, "Driving carefully is the responsibility of the driver and she was negligent so we have booked her!"

But when it comes to VVIPs, the law is conveniently applied as it happened in Delhi where the Delhi Court punished a PWD Assistant Engineer as he had "remained negligent in discharging his official duty and did not prevent the breeding of Aedes aegypti mosquitoes in the District Court Complex."

Well, it seems five Judges fell sick due to the mosquito problem. We wonder if that Thane Police Officer would dare tell the mosquito-bitten Judges that it is their responsibility to apply mosquito repellents knowing there were mosquitoes and refuse to book the PWD engineer.

For now, the Supreme Court can ask the political parties to pass the Motor Vehicle Amendment Bill 2017, which has been stuck in the Rajya Sabha since April 2017, even though the Lok Sabha has passed it.

This Bill has an important amendment that holds road contractors, consultants and civic bodies accountable for accidents caused due to faulty design, construction and poor maintenance of roads.

If this Bill passes, people will hold Government bodies and personnel accountable before a competent judiciary.

One wonders why public works are not undertaken during the night. In most countries, all city maintenance work, from cleaning the roads to pruning the trees to changing the street lights, is done at night when the public is least disturbed, so why not follow the same practice here in our city?

In 2019, the Delhi Transport Minister Gopal Rai directed all three, Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC), Public Works Department (PWD) and Delhi Jal Board, to carry out construction and repair works only at night.

All of us have seen how, at 9 am peak hour traffic, Government contractors paint a zebra crossing, blocking one part of the road and creating a bottleneck. Laying cables in the middle of the day is common across the city. Why can't these activities be conducted at night or during the wee hours when vehicular traffic is at its minimum?

During these hours, the public is not disturbed, the economy is not affected, life is not at risk and road rage is non-existent. Moreover, it is easier to see a well-lit coloured light and warning signs from a distance at night than during the day.

But then public work contractors do not follow proper safety protocol either. They do not place appropriately sized signages and warning boards much ahead of the work site. Because of this, motorists need more time to react and slow down! Every public work suddenly pops up like a jack in the box.

On May 21, 2015, Mumbai High Court, in an interim order, held that the "right to have properly maintained roads is part of the fundamental right guaranteed by Article 21 of the Constitution of India and in the event, any loss is caused due to its violation, the citizens have a right to seek compensation." But alas, who cares?

In 2014, it was reported that to have good roads, a Joint Commissioner of the Public Works Department in Chennai, Vijay Maruti Pingale, wanted to name and shame contractors, so he uploaded a list of contractors who had done a shoddy job and blacklisted them. He was transferred.

Do we deserve such irresponsible treatment? As the saying goes, "Find out just what people will quietly submit to, and you have the exact measure of injustice and wrong which will be imposed upon them."

Government services are the only paid services that do not give even a minimum guarantee of service after having collected payment for it! No Consumer Court for them.

For now, death caused due to unsafe practices in public works is becoming common; Be it collapsed bridges, flyovers or falling metro pillars. We need to take note. As India deploys massive infrastructure projects in preparation for massive urbanisation, authorities must at least ensure they are built safely without killing its citizens.

Yogathon 2022: City all set for a date with Yoga tomorrow

80,000 target; 37,000 register; 50,000 expected by today evening

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (RK,TRR& BCT)- Preparations have begun for Yogathon 2022 on Jan.15 where over 80,000 Yoga enthusiasts are expected to participate on the sprawling Mysore Race Club (MRC) campus.

The State Government has organised the simultaneous Yoga event across 31 districts at 35 locations. The Government has aimed to gather more than 10 lakh Yoga enthusiasts aiming to break the world record. The event has been organised to bring together people from all over the State interested in learning about health and fitness.

"The best way to have a healthy lifestyle is to incorporate fitness and Yoga into your daily routine." This is the idea behind the Yogathon, which is the State's largest yoga and health movement event.

Meetings have already been held and information has been given to the Departments and organisations. All arrangements will be made, including transportation for Yoga participants. High school, PUC, degree and PG students too will participate.

Hectic preparations are on at the MRC premises where the event will be held tomorrow from 7 am and Yoga enthusiasts are expected to pour in as early as 5.30 am.

Markings for entry and exit, parking spaces and dais have been completed and all necessary arrangements including fixing of lights, mobile toilets, ambulance facilities and drinking water will be completed by today evening. According to officials, there is no rehearsal for the event this time due to paucity of time.

Already, over 37,000 Yoga enthusiasts have registered their names. Though the organisers were expecting about 80,000 participants, it is now expected that the registrations may reach 50,000 by today evening.

The Yogathon is being organised by the District Administration in association with Mysuru City Corporation, Zilla Panchayat, the Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports, AYUSH Department and Yoga Federation. Yesterday, Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra, Additional Deputy Commissioner R. Lokanath and other officials visited the MRC and reviewed the preparations.

It may be mentioned here that the MRC was the venue when Mysuru entered the Guinness Book of World Records for the largest Yoga demonstration at a single venue on International Day of Yoga, 2017 where over 55,506 people performed in unison.

Sankranti shopping at City Markets

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (RKB&DM)- With just a day to go for Makara Sankranti (Jan.15), the first major festival of the new year, the city markets are witnessing a rush of people who are thronging them for making last minute purchases for the festival.

The markets and other shops were flooded with packets of yellu-bella (mixture of seasame and jaggery pieces), sugarcane stalks, puja articles, clothes and all other articles widely used in the festival, which is dedicated to the Sun God (Surya).

Paramesh and Sagar from Holenarasipur, who sell sugarcane stalks at Agrahara Circle during the festival every year, said that the demand for the cane has shot up this year as compared to the previous years. Maintaining that they have already sold two lorry loads of sugarcane, the duo said that they were forced to get another load of sugarcane following the huge demand.

Jaggery (bellada achhu) and sugar cubes (sakkare achhu), mango leaves, flowers and fruits used in this religious, cultural and harvest festival were in great demand too. However, the prices have shot up only marginally, thus bringing some sort of relief to the people, who are reeling under soaring prices of essential commodities. A quarter kg. packet of yellu-bella mix is being sold at Rs.30.

Apart from the traditional pujas and rituals attached with it, the festival also features many other activities such as kite flying, bonfires, fairs, surya puja in rivers, feast, arts, dance, socialisation, gau puja etc., especially in rural areas, where the festival is celebrated with great fervor.

Congress activists meet DCP demanding action against Rangayana Director

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (GA&BCT)- Days after supporters of former CM Siddharamaiah and KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar protested against Rangayana for what they called showing their leaders in poor light, a delegation of the Congress party met DCP M. Muthuraj at his office yesterday and sought action against Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa.

Congress delegation submitting a memorandum to DCP M. Muthuraj at his office yesterday.

A formal complaint was handed over to the DCP by Rural District Congress Legal and Human Rights Committee alleging that the play 'Sambashiva Prahasana' at Rangayana twisted the contents of the play to create social unrest and disturb peace in the society.

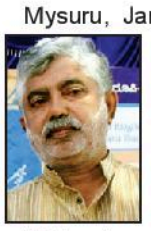
As part of the Nagarathnamma Theatre Camp organised by Rangayana, director Karthik Upamanyu and several students recently staged the play 'Sambashiva Prahasana,' an adaptation of a book written by Dr. Kambara. The Congress alleged that the dialogues in the play were tweaked without mentioning their names to refer to Congress Legislature Party leader Siddharamaiah, showing him in poor light, and also to insult Shivakumar.

The delegation told the DCP that even Dr. Chandrashekhara Kambara has sought action from Mysuru City Police for the alleged unauthorised use and distortion of his play while being enacted in a drama.

Rural District Congress Legal and Human Rights Committee President Palya Suresh, District Congress President B.J. Vijaykumar, KPCC Spokesperson M. Lakshmana, KPCC Legal State Secretary Kavitha Kale and others were present.

'Their main grouse is I am still the Director of Rangayana': Cariappa

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (BCT)- Reacting to the Congress protest and the party leaders seeking Police action against him for allegedly misusing his position to divide the society, Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa told Star of Mysore this morning that the play 'Sambashiva Prahasana' was a satire and must be seen as a comedy.



Addanda C. Cariappa

"The play does not mention Siddharamaiah and Shivakumar but is a satire on rulers and it must be taken in that spirit. I cannot help if they interpret the scenes in the play to suit their political narrative. All political leaders are lampooned and in the past, Siddharamaiah himself justified many plays and books where his opponents were ridiculed and said it was artistic freedom. Why the same yardstick is not applied here," he asked.

"We have not insulted anyone and it is their figment of imagination. Moreover, in the copy of Dr. Chandrashekhara Kambara's play, second or third reprint, there is no mention of having to take permission or to pay remuneration to stage the play, generally mentioned in some plays," he added.

Cariappa said that after the play was staged, certain rowdy elements barged into the Rangayana campus on Jan. 10 at 11.30 pm to disturb peace there. "The rowdy elements were drunk and were asking for me. I was not in Mysuru and they tried to vandalise the Rangayana campus. There is a school (Bharathiya Ranga Shikshana Shaale) inside the Rangayana campus and there are girl students who are studying. These drunk hooligans threatened their safety and well-being. The inebriated elements even tried to assault our staff," Cariappa alleged.

"All political parties and leaders are lampooned on social media these days. Will they ban social media? In a democracy, there is freedom of expression and it applies to all irrespective of party affiliations. But here, when BJP leaders are criticised and ridiculed, they say it is freedom of expression. But when Congress leaders — the so-called champions of freedom of expression — are mocked, then it is taken in another way and protests are organised," Cariappa added.

"Their main grouse is that I am continued as Rangayana Director by the Government even after the completion of my term. They cannot bear this fact. But they must remember that I will not be cowed down by their empty threats. They have no moral standing to criticise me," he said.

State-level Volleyball Tournament in city from Jan. 25 to 29

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (PM&DM)- The 25th State-level Volleyball Tournament for men and women will be held in Mysuru from Jan. 25 to 29 at the University of Mysore Sports Pavilion.

Announcing this at a press meet here recently, Mysuru District Volleyball Association Executive President Prof. M. Chandrakumar said that the five-day tournament is being organised under the aegis of Karnataka State Volleyball Association.

Pointing out that only one team from every district can take part, he said that 30 men teams and 20 women teams, which collectively comprise about a thousand Volleyball players, will be taking part. There will be four prizes in both the categories. About 16 to 20 players will be selected to represent the State at the National-level, Prof. Chandrakumar added.

A poster of the tournament was released on the occasion.

Association office-bearers T. Shivaprakash, Arun Kumar, S. Girish and others were present at the press meet.

ADGP quizzes Santro Ravi

Prior to ADGP Alok Kumar's visit, City Police Commissioner B. Ramesh too interrogated Santro Ravi at the Vijayanagar Police Station.

The Police team including N.R. Sub-division ACP M. Shivashankar, CCB ACP C.K. Ashwathnarayan, CCB Inspector A. Mallesh, Vijayanagar Police Inspector Ravishankar, Udayagiri Inspector C.K. Raju and Vidyaranyapuram Inspector G. C. Raju also interrogated accused.

Commissioner B. Ramesh told media persons, "barring the travel time, there is still 24 hours left to produce the accused before Magistrate. We will interrogate them till that time."

According to Police sources, "It is likely that Ravi and others will be produced at the official residence of the Judge of Sixth Additional District and Sessions Court on Valmiki Road in V. V. Mohalla. Santro Ravi's Police Custody will be sought for one week, as he has to be taken for spot mahazar including the advocate's house in Srirampura where he tied the knot (with his second wife, the complainant in the case) and his house in Dattagalli, to seize incriminating evidences in the case."

Barricaded

The area around Vijayanagar Police Station has been barricaded with a posse of Policemen deputed to man the security, as a precautionary measure.

For now, probing only Santro Ravi's wife's plaint: ADGP

Mysuru, Jan. 14 (RK&BS)- ADGP (Law and Order) Alok Kumar has said that 'for now, we are investigating into the complaint (lodged by his wife) at Vijayanagar Police Station against Santro Ravi."

Alok Kumar told media persons outside Vijayanagar Police Station this morning, "We haven't questioned the accused regarding other issues. We will seek his (Santro Ravi) Police Custody to interrogate him further. We have been collecting primary information related to his movements for 11 days and whoever helped him at that time."

'Santro Ravi is a diabetic and takes insulin at every one hour. I have directed to make required arrangements. At the outset, it appears that, he doesn't have any other health issues (than diabetes)', said Alok Kumar.

We are interrogating four accused including Santro Ravi in the case, added ADGP.

Mysuru Royalty closes Devikere Road atop Chamundi Hill

Gate installed; no entry signboard placed; security personnel posted

In addition to the works at Devikere, a solid waste management plant is being built at a cost of Rs. 76 lakh and the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) has sanctioned Rs. 6 crore to provide drinking water. All the works have been stalled now following the royal family's objection.

The royal family claims that the Lake and its surroundings are their properties and no work can be taken up without their consent. Yesterday, the gate on the road that leads from Chidambareshwar Temple to Devikere was locked to prevent unauthorised entry. The gate is located on the main road near the multi-level parking lot.

This move, however, has inconvenienced the villagers residing on top of the Hill. As the gate is locked, even the inhabitants of the Hill for decades have been restricted from entering their areas through this road. Unaware of the restriction, many villagers were shocked as this is the only road that can lead them to their houses.

As the gate has come up right in the middle of the road (see pic above), villagers of a particular section or area near the Devikere cannot take their vehicles inside. Neither they can move freely now as the entry is restricted. When the villagers spotted the gate initially, they broke it open. However, within hours, a restricted entry board was placed and security personnel posted there.

There are steps from the Sri Chamundeshwari Temple connecting Devikere and the houses of that area. Here there is no scope to take vehicles.

Concerned about the developments, the Chamundi Hill villagers living around Devikere who have been locked out are planning to meet Pramoda Devi Wadiyar to urge her to make way for the villagers and not to lock the gate as their movements will be curtailed.

Villagers to meet Pramoda Devi

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat President Bharat Kalaiah said that the move to lock the gate is inconveniencing the villagers who are not aware of the land dispute.

"We have tremendous respect for the royal family and Pramoda Devi is like a mother to all of us. Residents of Chamundi Hill look up to the royal family and have high regard. They will never go against the sentiments of the royal family and they will maintain the same regard and respect towards the family members. We will urge Pramoda Devi Wadiyar to open the gates in the interest of the villagers," he said.

"The residents of this part of the Hill are dependent on the road and there is a regular movement of school children and ambulances during emergencies. Therefore, locking the gate will lead to hardship. We will soon meet Pramoda Devi and explain our plight to her," Bharat added.

WORD OF THE DAY

Conundrum

Pronunciation: kuh-NUN-drum.
Meaning: A conundrum is a problem that is difficult, confusing, or intricate. Conundrum can also refer to a riddle whose answer is or involves a pun.
Origin: We can only conjecture the exact origin of conundrum. What is known is that the word has been in use since the 1600s and that it had various spellings, such as conimbrum, quonundrum, conuncrum and quadundrum, before the current spelling was finally established in the following century. One theory of origin suggests that the word was coined as a parody of Latin by students at Oxford University, where it appears to have enjoyed particular popularity in its "word play" or "pun" sense. While the prevalent sense in this century is that of the seemingly unanswerable question or problem, frequently applied to heady dilemmas involving ethics, sociology, or economics, the word is sometimes so loosely applied to anything enigmatic as to be synonymous with puzzle or mystery.
Example: "We need to nurture a global energy system that is reliable, clean, affordable and safe. To solve this conundrum will require a combination of idealism and realism." — Bob Sternfels

THE ODD WORD

Cafard

Depression; the blues.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Cup of tea

Meaning: The phrase 'Cup of tea' is used to define something you like, or perhaps something you're good at doing.
Origin: This phrase was known to be used in a negative way. For example: "He's not my cup of tea". The positive version of the phrase this started in the late 1800s when the British changed the phrase to "My cup of tea" used to describe something they enjoyed.
Example: "Fiction novels aren't really my cup of tea. To be frank, I prefer crime thrillers or historical books."

QUOTE BOX

We are like Tea, we don't know our own Strength until we're in Hot Water.
